

Phnom Penh City Tour & Apsara Arts Foundation

Code: INS-CM05

Duration: Full day

Beautiful historical buildings, aromatic street food around every corner, endless markets and monks passing you by on the streets, Phnom Penh is not just another metropolis - it's the ancient Asia you dream of. This fascinating city with a dark history of war and turmoil is now filled with vibrancy and warmth. Today we take you to the National Museum, the stunning Royal Palace, the Silver Pagoda, which is covered with over 5000 silver tiles and the Apsara Arts Foundation, whose aim is to preserve Cambodian arts and culture whilst teaching disadvantaged children traditional dancing. In the afternoon you'll visit Choeng Ek, the location of the infamous Killing Fields, and Toul Sleng prison, the notorious prison where thousands of people perished in the darkest hours of Cambodian history.
