

Unique Khmer Architecture

Code: INS-CM07

Duration: Half day

Enjoy the inspiring architecture of Phnom Penh by cyclo or walking. The mix of French colonialism with 1960's Khmer shaded by the tragedy of the Khmer Rouge has made Phnom Penh a totally unique architectural experience. Let the charm of the city take you as you move at a leisurely pace, stopping to visit the art deco Psar Tmai (central market) and the colonial era post office. We finish our morning at the 1960's White Building that was created in an attempt to offer comfortable low-cost housing for civil servants. During the rule of the Khmer Rouge, people were forced to leave and the building fell into disrepair. We take the unique opportunity to attend a performance of a music class in this building, sharing the joy of music with the children.
