No journey to China is complete without a visit to the Great Wall - especially the untouched part of the Great Wall, which is a great historical landmark entirely unprecedented. This tour takes you to some of the original un-restored sections of the wall to give you a real sense of just how majestic it is. Spend the night at a farmer's guesthouse and meet the locals at eye-level.

Your itinerary:

Day 1: Beijing - Great Wall (L,D)

You depart from your hotel by private car heading towards the north of Beijing. You will arrive the destination after 1,5 hour driving, will start your hiking, from our drop off point we start the 2-hour hike up the steep slope to the top depending on your energy, this point is considered as a paradise of professional photographers because of its great scenery. After short refreshment, continue your hike on the wall and start to descend, return the guesthouse in the afternoon, you can enjoy some relaxing time in the courtyard or help your hostess to collect some fresh vegetables from the fields and learn to cook Chinese dishes. Overnight in a Farmer's Guesthouse.

Day 2: Great Wall - Beijing (B)

After breakfast, start a short hiking at another Secret part of the wall depending on your energy / or bicycle through the local villages in the morning instead of another hiking. Early afternoon transfer back to downtown. On the way, have a photo stop at 2008 Beijing Olympic parks to have a close look at Bird' Nest and Water Cube. The trips will end at your hotel in Beijing in the late-afternoon.
