

THE TEMPLE RUINS OF PALEIK

Code: INS-MN21

Duration: Half morning

This is an ideal excursion in the morning (on arrival from Mandalay airport or from the Mandalay bus station). The snake temple in Paleik is known for the 3 pythons sleeping at the Buddha statue that are washed and fed daily at 11am by local worshippers. Lesser known are the ancient temple ruins in the same area, many of them over 200 years old and partly overgrown by vegetation. It's a sort of "mini Bagan" and you will probably find yourself alone, feeling like the first foreigner ever to discover this place, surrounded by temples. After visiting Paleik we continue to your end destination (whether it's your hotel in Mandalay or the airport or bus station on the way to another city in Myanmar).
