A picnic in Minnanthu – half day

Minnanthu is probably the favourite temple area amongst frequent Bagan visitors and you know why? It's quiet, it's a beautiful area and the temples here are often completely deserted. The guide brings you by car to this forgotten part of Bagan and will spread out a blanket and serve you a great picnic lunch in this historical setting before or after visiting 2 or 3 ancient temples ruins in this area.

Sundowners on a Sandbank – sunset tour

We think that you have to stay at least 2 nights in Bagan; one to see the sun go down from the top of an ancient temple, the other one to take a boat ride on the mighty Ayeyarwaddy River and have some sundowners on a sandbank in the middle of the river - if the river is not too high! A private boat tour on the river in the evening will hopefully show you a spectacular sunset while your guide serves you cocktails and some tasty snacks.

From here the guide plans his way to some of the other amazing temples that have been here for hundreds of years. Places like the Ananda, Dhammayangyi, Sulamani, and Thatbyinnyu will certainly impress you. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant and around 4pm we continue the tour by horse drawn cart to the Pyathagyi pagoda for sunset with some refreshing drinks served! Oh... we forgot to mention the best part of this tour; whenever you see a temple you like, just you're your guide to stop to have a look at it – simply pick your own favourite temple.
