

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF BOGYOKE AUNG SAN

Tour Code: INS-MN29

Duration: Half day

The Father of Myanmar independence, the national hero and the person who fought against the British and later against the Japanese to give Burma independence in 1947, Bogyoke (which means general) Aung San is still loved by people nationwide. During this half day tour we visit places in Yangon related to the life of General Aung San who brought independence to Myanmar. Your guide will give you detailed background information about his life and the history of Myanmar. Places you will visit include Yangon downtown, the recently re-opened Aung San museum (closed on Monday and Tuesday) and his wife's Mausoleum. The tour ends with a lunch in Aung San's former office.
